Statement on the Nomination of Maria Echaveste as Ambassador to Mexico

"I am extremely pleased that Maria Echaveste has been nominated for Ambassador to Mexico. Ms. Echaveste is a dear friend, a thoughtful advocate and a proven leader. She possesses the necessary professional experience and deep personal ties to Mexico that will make her an effective Ambassador for our Country.

Ms. Echaveste has been a longtime advocate for immigration reform and has been actively involved on a wide range of policy issues since serving as Deputy Chief of Staff for President Bill Clinton. I believe that because of her proven leadership experience in national policy and expertise on immigration, she is an excellent nominee for Ambassador to Mexico.

I am confident that she will be an effective advocate for strengthening relationships between the United States and Mexico."
